

ARTIST cv

Susan Severino

Susan Severino is a practicing artist who spends much of her time “Plein Air” painting in far Western NSW around the Fowler’s Gap Arid Research Zone and Broken Hill. Larger studio works, based upon the collected reference material from this arid area are completed back in her Sydney studio.

Currently undertaking a Master of Art in Painting at The College of Fine Arts, University of New South Wales, where she has had two group exhibitions based on the imagery of the Australian desert.

In 2011 Susan Severino fulfilled an Artist In Residence stay at Fowler’s Gap Arid Research Zone, in the Green House studio enabling her to further her “Plein Air” opportunities in the desert and to enhance her developing practices in painting.

Susan Severino

Born 1955      Grafton, Australia

2011-            Currently undertaking Master of Art in Painting, College of Fine Arts,
University of New South Wales

2010            Graduate Certificate in Art in Painting, College of Fine Arts,
University of New South Wales

1977            Diploma of Education

1974-1976      Bachelor of Science, University of New South Wales

Artist in Residence July 2011 Fowlers Gap Arid Research Zone.

Group Exhibitions

2011            1200k West COFAspace Gallery, College of Fine Arts, UNSW

2010            1200k West COFAspace Gallery, College of Fine Arts, UNSW

2010            Inspirations Kogarah Library Exhibition Space

2010            Kogarah Historical Society Art Exhibition- Kogarah Council Exhibition Space

2010            Art At Ground Level St George Private Hospital

Awards

2009            Westmead Breast Cancer Institute, Mural of Survivorship 2nd place winner

2009            Art of Sydney Awards Finalist

2009            Victoria Cancer Council Arts Awards- Finalist and Selected for Regional Exhibition