

Tony Costa was born in 1955. He completed Post Graduate studies at the City Art Institute Sydney in 1986.

Tony won the Paddington Art Prize for Landscape painting in 2014. He has been a finalist in the Wynne Prize for Landscape painting, the Sulman Prize and the Dobell Prize for drawing at the Art Gallery of NSW. Tony was a finalist in the Archibald Prize in 2015 and 2017 at the Art gallery of NSW, and his portrait paintings have also been selected for the Doug Moran Portrait prize and the Kilgour Portrait prize in Newcastle.

He was selected to participate in the Triangle Workshop in Pine Plains New York where he exhibited his work.

Tony Costa lives and works in Sydney. He is represented by Art Atrium in Sydney where he will be having a solo exhibition in April 2018