

Margaret Ellis - Biography

Margaret Ellis is the life governor of the Art gallery of New South Wales. She has extensive business and marketing experience having worked nationally and internationally for major multi-national organisations. In every city, she furthered her knowledge of art, in particular painting, by working as a volunteer in local galleries and was fortunate to meet artists from all genres.

Margaret was appointed in 2002 as a Governor and Foundation Member at the Art Gallery of NSW – a role she continues with today. Margaret is very interested in the work and progression of emerging artists in Australia.
