

Tim Allen

CV Summary

Tim was the winner of the 2017 Paddington Art Prize.

He was a winner of the 2016 Kedumba Drawing Award.

In 2014 he was featured in Artist Profile magazine (issue 26).

He was featured in the Talking with Painters podcast (episode 44 2018).

His work was selected for inclusion in the book 'A Painted Landscape' by Amber Creswell Bell (Thames and Hudson 2018)

Tim has been a selected finalist multiple times in many of Australia's leading art prizes including; the Adelaide Perry Prize for Drawing, the Paddington Art Prize, the Dobell Prize AGNSW, the Jacaranda Acquisitive Drawing Award, the NSW Parliament Plein Air Prize, the Wynne Prize AGNSW, the Tattersall's Landscape Prize, the Muswellbrook Art Prize, the King's School Art Prize and the Kedumba Drawing Award.

Tim has had 24 solo exhibitions, including 'Immersion' at Orange Regional Gallery in 2019.

Tim is represented by Defiance Gallery in Sydney and Gallerysmith in Melbourne.

Tim lives and works in the Blue Mountains.