

Nicholas Samartis CV

Artist Nicholas Samartis works across several mediums including sculpture, film, painting and installations, and is also known for his photographic artworks and portraiture. And is represented by the Olsen Gallery in Sydney.

And his work has been acquired in notable hotels, public spaces and private collections. And also known for his images in American Vogue.

He has been exhibited in group shows in Australia alongside Dale Frank, John Olsen, Fred Williams. Represented as an international artist along side the estates of Lucien Freud, Fransisco Goya, Pablo Picasso and Henry Moore.

His most recent exhibition at the Lyons Gallery had his work exhibited along side with photographers and artists, Helmut Newton, Lord Snowden, Norman Parkinson and Andy Warhol.

As a notable photographic artist and because of his Hellenic heritage he was the first artist invited to photograph the sculptures at The Acropolis Museum, Athens. Greece.

Awards :

2014 'The 'Pinnacle Award' for photography at The Australian Design Biennale.

2015 Featured in the Australian edition of Masters of Photography.

2016 Finalist for the National Portrait Prize by The National Portrait Gallery in Canberra.

2020 Two major works were accepted into Sculpture By The Sea 2020 - Bondi.

He is based in Australia and Los Angeles and represented by Olsen Gruin, New York.